(is referred to as duba rulez in this section) Pokémon Duel and POKEMON GO's tourney is probably one of the harder one to break into. If you join their site, then you'll need to submit 3 battles to be accepted, your trainer then picks which games you should play. Battle are usually 1 round and there's usually 9 games a day. The costs vary depending on the tier. Overall its not bad as its free to join, and the wins are very useful to go towards rankings. There are a lot of differences between Pokémon Duel and POKEMON GO. If you want to play at the higher tiers, you'll need to use the PayPal link above and be okay with your browser being redirected to their site. As you will see, this does cost some money as its free to join. However, if you don't get in at lower tiers, you'll be losing out on a lot of wins. For example, for a Gold tier starter, you'll need to buy in with ~$200-250. Gatcha There's a good option available at Gatcha for Android. Android users will need to download the Gatcha client on their phone, you'll then need to install it on your phone. As of Gatcha version 3.3.5, you can't be signed in to Gatcha while playing, it's assumed you're signing in on the device. Download the Gatcha client here If you're using the Play Store, you can download it here: If you're using F-droid, you can download it here: If you are using the Google Play store, there will be a notification pop up on your device. Use the QR code to be directed to Gatcha's website From here, you'll need to enter your Email address and be signed in. If your not signed in, it will show a screen to be redirected to login. As with all the options below, if you have a paypal account you can use that to pay for some rounds. You'll then need to select what tournament you're playing and it will show you the games available. Games are run as "1-vs-1", you'll be able to compare the tiles and 82157476af
